

Athena Sarris Art Gallery Exhibitor Application

ABOUT THE GALLERY

The Athena Sarris Art Gallery in the Frank Sarris Public Library is pleased to invite applications for its monthly exhibitions. The Athena Sarris Art Gallery offers area artists a public space in which to exhibit their work. Collectively, the exhibits aim to reflect a variety of media, styles, cultural viewpoints and levels of artistic expression as well as encourage appreciation and understanding of art in the community. Individuals or groups in Canonsburg, Cecil, North Strabane and surrounding communities may submit applications.

THE SPACE

The Athena Sarris Art Gallery is located on the second floor of the Frank Sarris Public Library and offers about 90 linear feet of wall space. The Gallery provides hardware for hanging wall works, which must be suitably framed and wired. Artists are responsible for installing and taking down their shows. If desired, the artist may also display title plates next to each piece in the exhibit. The Gallery will assist in the show publicity. A member of the Frank Sarris Public Library will inform you about publicizing and setting up your show. If the artist wishes to sell any of the work displayed in the Gallery, a commission of 30% will be charged on each piece sold.

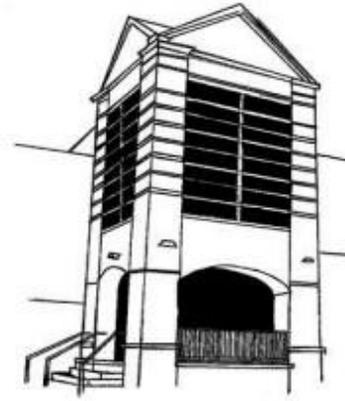

EXHIBIT SELECTION

In order to display work at in the Athena Sarris Art Gallery, artists and groups must submit the attached form to the Frank Sarris Public Library. Applications are available at the front circulation desk of the library, as well as online at www.franksarrislibrary.org.

If you are offered a show, it may be jointly with one or more other artists, because there may be more qualified people requesting space than can be accommodated by solo exhibitions. For joint shows, the library tries to choose applicants who are artistically compatible. All content of art for exhibition is subject to approval by the library.
